Although we previously sent you a notice of our intention to collect your unpaid tax through enforced collection, our records show that you still have not paid the amount you owe. Enforced collection may include placing a levy on your bank accounts, wages, receivables, commissions, etc. It could also involve seizing and selling your property, such as real estate, vehicles, or business assets.

To prevent collection action, please pay the amount you owe by 06/30/2015.

Make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury, and write your social security number or employer identification number on it. Send your payment to us in the enclosed envelope with a copy of this letter. The amount you owe is shown on the next page.

If you recently paid this or if you can't pay it, call as soon as you get this letter. Our telephone number is at the top of this letter. If you disagree with our taking enforcement action, you may be able to work out another solution. Speak to the person whose name appears at the top of this letter, or ask for that person's manager. If you do not agree with the results, you may ask for appeals consideration.

The unpaid amount from prior notices may include tax, penalties, and interest you still owe. It also includes credits and payments we have received since our last notice to you.

Interest - Internal Revenue Code Section 6601

We charge interest when your tax is not paid on time. Interest is computed from the due date of your return (regardless of extensions) until paid in full or to the date of this notice. Interest is also charged on penalties assessed on your account. Interest compounds daily except on underpaid estimated taxes for individuals or corporations.

Paying Late - Internal Revenue Code Section 6651(a)(2)

We charge a penalty when your tax is not paid on time. Initially, the penalty is 1/2 of 1% of the unpaid tax for each month or part of a month the tax was not paid.

Department of the Treasury

We are attempting to collect unpaid taxes from you. You should already be aware of this from our previous contacts with you. Generally, our practice is to deal directly with a taxpayer or a taxpayer's duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes talk with other persons, for example when we need information that the taxpayer has been unable to provide, or to verify information we have received.

We are writing to tell you that we may contact other persons. If we do contact other persons we will generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name. The law prohibits us from disclosing any more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we are seeking. Our need to contact other persons may continue as long as there is activity on this matter.

If you have any questions regarding this letter or wish to request a list of contacts, please do not hesitate to contact us at the telephone number listed above.

Sincerely,

R. CLINTON, JR.

REVENUE OFFICER
